

First Lady Elder Deborah Jackson

Mitchiner's Grove Baptist Church

Elder Deborah A. Jackson is a native of Carlisle, South Carolina. She is one of ten children of the late John and Viola Coleman. She was educated in the Fairfield County Public School System and later furthered her education at Voorhees College in Denmark, South Carolina where she received a Bachelor of Science Degree.

Elder Jackson is the wife of Reverend Melvin Jackson, who is the pastor of Mitchiner's Grove Baptist Church in Franklinton, North Carolina. They are the parents of one daughter, Genesis Tsedenia Jackson.

Elder Jackson has proven to be a faithful follower and humble servant. She ministers both within the church and volunteering in the surrounding communities. She has served in several capacities within the Body of Christ as an exemplary leader and is very active in the following ministries: Praise & Worship Leader, Women's Ministry Chairperson, Coordinator for Married Ministry, Youth-4-Christ Advisor, Sunday School Teacher and G.R.O.W. (God Rewards Our Work) Outreach Ministry Teacher. She has spoken at and hosted several Seminars, Workshops and Women Conferences.

Elder Jackson also spreads the Gospel as a multi songwriter and vocalist with the Gospel Recording Artist, CoCo McMillan, in her latest released CD entitled "I've Been Delivered". It was released on May 19, 2009. Elder Jackson is a member of Broadcast Music, Inc. (BMI). Additional joyful, uplifting and inspiring songs by Elder Jackson will be released at a later date.

Her favorite scripture can be found in II Chronicles 7:14 and it reads as follows:

If my people, which are called by my name,
shall humble themselves and pray, and seek my face,
and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven,
and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.

She is an anointed woman of God whom God uses to expound and minister the Gospel.

Elder Jackson is deeply committed to serving and worshipping God. Her desire is for God to be glorified. "To God Be The Glory".
