

Pastor Melvin Jackson - Biography

Pastor Melvin Jackson accepted his calling to the Gospel Ministry in 1989. He joined the Ministerial Staff at Wake Chapel Church in Raleigh, NC where he received his training and teaching under the leadership of his Pastor, Reverend John J. Wilkins, Jr.

Pastor Jackson is the past President of F.A.C.E.S.; past Moderator of the Franklin County Missionary Baptist Association, serves as the President of the Board of Directors for BruSon Group Homes in Wake County, and serves as a Wake Chapel Church Ordination Council Member. He is truly obedient to the Word of God as in Matthew 28:19-20. He believes in preaching the Word of God to all ages. Also, he knows that God is the strength of his life and he will continue to trust in the Lord with all his heart.

Pastor Jackson is married to the former Deborah A. Coleman. They are the proud parents of one daughter, Genesis Tsedenia Jackson.

The Mitchiner's Grove Baptist Church family recognizes that they have found a jewel in Pastor Jackson and are honored to not only call him their spiritual leader, but also a friend.